PSLE AL Scores: Sec School Choices Made Simpler (2025 Guide for Parents)

The Ministry of Education (MOE) has officially released the 2024 Primary School Leaving Examination (PSLE) results. Students and parents may now check the Achievement Level (AL) scores to determine eligibility for secondary school admission.

1. What is an IP School?

- IP (Integrated Programme) schools allow students to skip the GCE O-Level exams and proceed directly to A-Levels, IB, or other pre-university qualifications.
- These schools focus on holistic education with broader curricula (e.g., research, leadership).
- Examples: Raffles Girls', Hwa Chong, Nanyang Girls'.

2. Understanding the Table (Cut-Off Points)

- PSLE Score (AL): The cut-off points show the minimum Achievement Level (AL) score needed for admission.
- Lower score = More competitive (e.g., AL 5 at Raffles Girls').
- "6M":
- 6 = AL score.
- M (Merit) = Higher Chinese Language proficiency for SAP (Special Assistance Plan) schools like Hwa Chong/Nanyang.

3. G3, G2, G1 Subject Banding (Simplified)

- G3 (General 3): The standard academic level for most subjects (e.g., Math, Science), typically requiring a higher level of understanding and independent work.
- G2 (General 2): A slightly less demanding level than G3, suitable for students who may need additional support or have a slightly lower academic capability.
- G1 (General 1): A foundational level intended for students requiring more significant support in their learning, often focusing on basic concepts and skills.

Why it matters: Cut-off points can vary slightly depending on subject combinations, with some subjects being more challenging than others.

4. What Does 'D/M/P' Mean?

- These letters indicate a student's Higher Chinese Language proficiency, which is a key requirement for admission to SAP schools (e.g., Hwa Chong Institution, Nanyang Girls' High).
 - D (Distinction):
 - Highest grade, awarded for top performance in PSLE Higher Chinese Language.
